"I Am the Same Inside"

I am the same inside,
as some people can see.
But some people think I'm weird
because they don't look inside of me.

I am the same inside.
That's what I want people to know.
So I'm going to start letting it show.

I am the same inside.
I'm not dumb in any way.
I just want to be like a normal kid and play.

I am the same inside,
just like a normal kid.
And I want to let everybody know,
this is what I did.

Service Continued Outside

Butterfly Release We ask that you join us outside to watch the release of Monarch butterflies by Kaitlyn's friends.

Poem read by Kelly Langstaff.

As you release this butterfly in honor of me,
Know that I'm with you and will always be.
Hold a hand, say a prayer,
Close your eyes and see me there.
Although you may feel a bit torn apart,
please know that I'll be forever in your heart.
Now fly away butterfly as high as you can go,
I'm right there with you more than you know.

Balloon Release Symbolizing the release of grief and the celebration of life, you are invited to take a balloon and help us create a rainbow in the sky for Kaitlyn. Say a special prayer and send it up to her.

Following these activities you are invited to join the Langstaff family in the Worship Café for fellowship, food and sharing memories.

Some people make a difference just by being who they are,
Their inner light shines bright and touches
near and far,
and even when they're gone,
they still forever play a part in the smiles,
the priceless moments,
that are treasured in the heart.
